VERS DE SOCIÉTÉ.

EVERY SATURDAY merged in THE LIVING AGE.

The Living Age has been published for more than thirty years, with the warm support of the best men of the country. It has steadily continued to stand at the head of its class, and is now the most popular weekly magazine in America.

EVERY SATURDAY is and is without a rival in its special position.

A weekly magazine of sixty-four pages, THE LIVING AGE, gives more than THREE AND A QUARTER THOUSAND double-column octavo pages of reading—news, history, science, biography, literature, and art, from the most eminent writers of the day, and with a satisfactory companion, by no other publication, the best Review, Criticism, Letters, Poetry, Science, Biographical, Historical, Political information, from the entire body of foreign Periodical Literature.

During the course year, the serial and short stories of the LEADING FOREIGN AUTHORS will be given, together with an amount UNAPPROACHED BY ANY OTHER PERIODICAL IN THE WORLD, of the best literary and scientific matter of the day, from the most eminent writers of the day, and with a special column of Societary Criticism, Discourses, and Edits, representing every department of knowledge and progress.

The importance of THE LIVING AGE to every American reader, as the only safe and reliable source of information, and the great value of its contents—indispensable because it embraces the productions of all branches of literature, Science, Art, and Politics—is sufficiently indicated by the following record:

OPINIONS.

"Simply indispensable to any one who desires to keep abreast of the thought of the age in any department of science or literature."—Boston Journal.

"The best thoughts of the best minds of the civilized world are collected in it."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"No other single publication can be said to have so much of sterling literary excellence in it."—New-York Tribune.

"The clearest, the most interesting stories, the finest poetry of the English language, are here gathered together."—[The] State Journal.

"With a little reader may fairly keep up with all that is important in the history, politics, and science of the day."—[The] Metropolis, New York.

"A pure and perfect reservoir of knowledge and fountains of entertainment and instruction."—Franklin's Magazine.

"The best journal in America."—Dr. Curves.

"It has no equal in our country."—[Philadelphia Press].

"Its publication in weekly numbers gives it a distinct advantage over all other periodicals in the spirit and interest of its contents."—The Pacific, San Francisco.

"The more noted new novels appear as serials, and the most distinguished for their style, form, and art are represented in its pages."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"It is also compilation that presents with a satisfactory completeness, as well as fulness, the best of English, German, French, and Italian literature, embracing the productions of the ablest and most celebrated writers living. It is, therefore, indispensable to every library, and is a valuable addition to all that is admirable in the literary world."—St. Louis Post.
